

Course Outline

SAFETY LEADERSHIP

Units:

RIIBEF402D Supervise on-site operations
RIICOM301D Communicate information
RIIRIS301D Apply risk management processes
BSBMGT401 Show Leadership in the workplace

Overview

Safety Leadership is a vital component of any Safety, Health & Environment process. Benefits of our training course should create better business continuity, thereby increasing productivity by avoiding incidents, accidents, breakdowns and process failures as well as improving employee's safety behaviour which in turn reduces lost time and minor injury frequency rates

Target Audience

Site Supervisors. The program has been developed to provide Supervisors with the necessary competencies to satisfy site requirements

Maximum Participants

10

Duration

2 Days face-to-face plus self-paced assessment workbook

Pre-Requisites

Participants should have a minimum of 12 months' experience in a supervisory role.

Course Outcomes

Specific topics include:

- An understanding of compliance documentation
- Effective communication with team
- Problem solving processes
- Process of monitoring projects
- Coordination of work objectives
- Maintenance of operating records
- Familiarisation with Duty of Care
- Ability to identify hazards within your area of work
- Calculate the risk associated with hazards
- Implement risk treatments
- Develop a Job Hazard Analysis
- Management of performance and behavior
- Make informed decisions
- Process of communicating orally and in writing
- Achieving meeting outcomes
- Creating and making presentations
- Principles of effective negotiation

Site Delivery Requirements

- Suitable classroom

